M-1.00 A STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

M-1.01 Vision: Huntingdon Presbytery: Loved by Jesus Christ, called to love all others

M-1.02 Belief: We believe that God is calling the church to renewal and transformation that we may witness to the love of Jesus Christ in changing and challenging times. This call has been heard by rural, town, and urban churches, large and small, in the mountains and valleys of Central Pennsylvania. We believe that by God's saving grace, we are loved by Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Therefore, the churches, ministers, and lay persons of Huntingdon Presbytery can and will participate in God's future for the church and the world. We believe that every church is called to offer gifts to Christ's work in the world.

M-1.03 Work: Huntingdon Presbytery seeks to discern and answer God's call as it:

- a. Gathers as Christ's community for:
 1. Worship, where we proclaim God's Word to the presbytery, listen for what God wants us to be and do, pray for Christ's church and for the ministry in and of Huntingdon Presbytery, and celebrate communion and the love of God in Jesus Christ
 2. Fellowship, where we broaden and deepen relationships among our churches and leaders and joyfully discover God's love for us in our love for one another
 3. Education and spiritual growth, where we discover, affirm, and celebrate what it means to be the church of Jesus Christ today, as part of the Reformed faith and as Presbyterians
- b. Challenges churches and members as disciples of Christ to:
 1. Discover their gifts and fulfill their calling
 2. Serve in their communities
 3. Be faithful stewards of all their gifts
 4. Speak with and hear one another through Christ's love
 5. Rediscover the meaning, responsibilities, and accountability of being Presbyterian
 6. Deepen their love of God and their neighbor

- c. Equips churches and laity to:
 1. Develop strong, vital leadership for their ministries as they face the challenges of a changing world
 2. Provide resources to support their ministries that they may better witness to Christ's love for all
 3. Facilitate communication and connection of churches with each other and with the presbytery, synod, and General Assembly
- d. Explores new forms of ministry to assist churches in their pastoral and leadership needs, and prays for transformed churches, active and alive in God's Spirit
- e. Supports ministers by:
 1. Challenging them to rediscover the meaning, responsibilities, and accountability of being Presbyterian
 2. Providing opportunities for nurture, fellowship, and pastoral care, and continued growth in their ministry
- f. Shares in joint mission by:
 1. Reaching out as churches and as a presbytery to our communities and the world
 2. Loving others in the name of Christ

We offer our very lives in thanksgiving to God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, confident that the one who calls us is the creator, redeemer, and sustainer of our lives and the one who gives to us the gift of faith.

M-2.00MEMBERS*M-2.01

Membership: The presbytery's membership shall be as defined in the Book of Order. Each elder elected as a moderator, a vice moderator, a chair of a committee or team, or as a member of the Visioning Team shall be enrolled as a member of the presbytery for his or her term of office, whether or not commissioned by his or her session. If a committee or team chair is unable to attend a stated or special meeting of the presbytery, the committee or team may designate a representative with voice and vote. The general presbyter, if an elder, shall also be enrolled as a member of the presbytery for the term of his or her office. Commissioned lay pastors may also be enrolled as members of the presbytery for the terms of their commission.

M-2.02

Goal of Parity: The presbytery shall strive whenever possible to further the goal of parity in its membership between the number of ministers of Word and Sacrament and the number of ruling elders.

M-3.00 MEETINGS AND GATHERINGS

M-3.01 Meeting Types and Notice: Huntingdon Presbytery shall hold regularly scheduled stated meetings and, as needed, special meetings. Meetings may be held in person or via electronic means. Notice for a stated or special meeting shall be sent not less than ten days in advance to each minister of the Word and Sacrament and each ruling elder member of presbytery and to the session of every church.

M-3.02 Stated Meetings: The presbytery shall ordinarily hold five stated meetings annually: three meetings with a business emphasis, one meeting with a designated emphasis, and one training meeting for church officers and presbytery committee members. Ordinarily the business meetings will be held in January (daytime), June (evening), and September (evening). The April meeting (evening) will have designated emphasis of interest to the congregations. The November meeting (daytime, Saturday) will be a training session for church leaders.

M-3.0201 Stated Meeting Requirements: Committees, teams, and officers are requested to send materials and requests for docket time and equipment to the clerk by the deadline set for inclusion. Late materials will be available at registration. For any action of the presbytery requiring a two-thirds or larger majority vote, the motion and any substantiating information must be printed and distributed to the commissioners with the pre-presbytery mailing for the stated meeting at which it is to be considered. Late materials will be received but docketed for action at the next stated meeting.

M-3.03 Special Meetings: Special meetings of the presbytery may be called by the moderator at the request, or with the concurrence, of two ministers of the Word and Sacrament and two ruling elders, the ruling elders being of different churches. Should the moderator be unable to act, the stated clerk shall, under the same conditions, issue the call.

M-3.0301 Special Meeting Requirements: The notice of a special meeting shall state the purpose of the special meeting, and no business other than that listed in the notice shall be transacted.

M-3.04 Meeting Notice Delivery: Meeting notice may be made by electronic mail, the U.S. Postal Service, or an announcement in the Huntingdon Presbytery "Connections" electronic newsletter.

M-3.05 Quorum: A quorum of the presbytery shall be three ministers of Word and Sacrament and three ruling elder commissioners, the ruling elders being of different churches.

M-3.06 Conduct of Meetings: Meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, except where the Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) provides otherwise.

- M-3.0601 Participation in Meetings: Continuing members of the presbytery are expected to participate responsibly in its deliberations and work; however, honorably retired members of the presbytery, when absent from meetings, shall be considered to be excused.
- M-3.0602 Voice and Vote in Meetings: Each member of the presbytery shall have voice and vote. The presbytery may designate other participants as corresponding members with voice.
- M-3.07 Duties: The duties, power, and authority of the presbytery shall be as defined in the Book of Order.
- M-3.08 Offerings: An offering shall be received at every stated meeting during worship. The Committee on Presbytery Life shall designate the recipient of each meeting's offering.
- M-3.09 Submission of Commissioner Resolutions: SEE Appendix I
- M-4.00 OFFICERS & STAFF
- M-4.01 Presbytery Officers: The elected officers of the presbytery shall be the moderator, the vice-moderator, and the stated clerk, and other officers as determined by the presbytery from time to time.
- M-4.02 Election of Officers: Election of the moderator, vice-moderator and any other applicable officers will usually be made at the September stated meeting upon nomination by the Nominating Committee and those elected shall take office the following January.
- M-4.03 Moderator: The moderator is elected annually for a one-year term and will ordinarily alternate yearly between a minister and a ruling elder.
- M-4.0301 Moderator Duties: SEE Appendix II
- M-4.04 Vice-Moderator: The vice-moderator is elected annually for a one-year term and will ordinarily alternate yearly between a minister and a ruling elder. The vice-moderator will normally become the succeeding moderator.
- M-4.0401 Vice-Moderator Duties: SEE Appendix III
- M-4.05 Stated Clerk: The stated clerk shall, on nomination by the Personnel Team, be elected for a five-year term. The stated clerk may be re-elected for additional terms.
- M-4.0501 Stated Clerk Duties: The duties of the stated clerk shall include those duties enumerated by the Book of Order and the job description provided by the Personnel Team.

- M-4.06 Officer Vacancies: Vacancies in the position of moderator, vice-moderator or any other applicable office may be filled upon nomination by the Nominating Committee and election at any meeting of the presbytery. Vacancies in the position of stated clerk may be filled upon nomination by the Personnel Team and election at any meeting of the presbytery.
- M-4.07 Head of Staff: The presbytery shall be administered by a general presbyter. The general presbyter shall be called by the presbytery as guided by its Personnel Policy and in conformance with the Book of Order. The general presbyter is an ex officio member of all teams and committees except the Permanent Judicial Commission.
- M-4.08 Additional Staff: The presbytery may, through its Personnel Team, employ additional staff, such as an administrative assistant, treasurer, resource center coordinator, and Christian Education consultant, as its mission may from time to time require. Position descriptions of the officers and staff shall be approved by the presbytery and maintained by the Personnel Team.
- M-4.09 Staff Support: The stated clerk shall serve as staff to the Permanent Judicial Commission. The general presbyter shall be a resource person to each committee, except the Permanent Judicial Commission, with voice but, unless otherwise specified in this manual, without vote. Employees may serve as resource persons to committees, teams, and working task groups as requested, with voice but without vote.
- M-4.10 Staff and Officer Duties: Presbytery staff and officers shall perform those duties as assigned by the Book of Order and the presbytery and have such authority as necessary to carry them out.

M-5.00 TRUSTEES

M-5.01 The trustees of the Huntingdon Presbytery shall be the duly elected and serving members of the Committee on Presbytery Life, fulfilling duties as required by the bylaws of the presbytery, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and other duties as assigned by the presbytery. The stated clerk is the secretary of the corporation and shall be present when trustee business is being conducted.

M-5.02 Duties: SEE Appendix IV

M-6.00 COMMITTEE ORGANIZATION

M-6.01 Presbytery Committees: The presbytery shall form committees, teams, commissions, and working task groups to assist in carrying out its work. Permanent bodies shall be the Visioning Team, the Committee on Ministry, the Committee on Presbytery Life, the Personnel Team, the Camp and Retreat Center Committee, the Permanent Judicial Commission, and the Nominating Committee. Committees, teams, and working task groups are encouraged to lift up missions and programs for the presbytery's notice.

- M-6.02 Subcommittees: Committees or teams may organize subcommittees to facilitate their work. Subcommittee reports shall be made through the committees or teams.
- M-6.03 Election of Committee Members: Election of committee members, including committee officers, will usually be made at the September stated meeting upon nomination by the Nominating Committee and those elected shall take office the following January. Committee officers will be elected for one-year terms.
- M-6.04 Committee Attendance: The position of any member who misses two consecutive regular meetings of a committee or team without notification shall be declared vacant and the member so notified by the committee chair.
- M-6.05 Committee Vacancies: When a member of a committee moves out of the area, leaves the denomination, or enters into disability status, their committee assignment shall be automatically declared vacated. Vacancies shall be filled as soon as possible throughout the year.
- M-6.06 Committee Meetings: Committees and teams may meet in person or by electronic means. Meetings that are conducted wholly or in part by electronic means must uphold the principles and the procedures of the Electronic Meeting Policy of this presbytery. Meetings of investigative committees and the Permanent Judicial Commission are not included in this provision, but will be guided by the Rules of Discipline.
- M-6.07 Committee Expenses: Necessary expenses of the committees, teams, commissions, and working task groups will be paid by the presbytery's treasurer in accordance with an adopted budget and upon receipt of proper vouchers.
- M-6.0701 Process for Payment of Expenses: The treasurer of the Corporation is the treasurer of the presbytery. Once bills of the presbytery are received by the administrative assistant and approved by the general presbyter, the bills are sent to the bookkeeper. If under $1000, he/she will pay them with a stamp of the name of the treasurer. If over $1000, the bills will be returned to the administrative assistant of the presbytery for another signature as approved by presbytery at the January meeting.
- M-6.0702 Duties: SEE Appendix V.

- M-6.08 Presbytery Year: The presbytery will use the calendar year for its reports and committee membership service.

APPENDICES

Appendix I Submission of Commissioner Resolutions (M-3.09)

The business of councils is described in G-3.01 of the Form of Government and of the presbytery specifically in G-3.03. Business that falls within these categories may be brought to the presbytery by any committee or commission of the presbytery and by any session, congregation, or commissioner.

- a. Normally, items suggested for presbytery consideration should be submitted to the appropriate committee, commission, or officer of the presbytery for review and recommendation.
- b. Nonetheless, commissioner resolutions may be submitted for consideration at any stated meeting of presbytery or special meeting called for that purpose. Commissioner resolutions should be submitted to the stated clerk at least fourteen days prior to the meeting at which they are to be considered. A short note of explanation as to why the resolution is being offered must be included with the information sent to the stated clerk.
- c. The stated clerk will immediately contact the chair of the Committee on Presbytery Life to ascertain the legality of the resolution. Only resolutions expressed in decorous and respectful language will be accepted. Upon approval by the Committee on Presbytery Life, the document will be circulated via email or in the pre-presbytery packet sent to all sessions, clergy, and continuing members of the presbytery. Such resolutions will be considered during the new-business phase of the meeting.
- d. If an urgent matter requiring the attention of the presbytery arises less than fourteen days prior to a stated meeting of the presbytery, a commissioner may bring the matter to the attention of the presbytery following this procedure: The commissioner will contact the stated clerk and the chair of the Committee on Presbytery Life prior to the start of the meeting and provide them the text of the commissioner resolution. The stated clerk and the chair of the Committee on Presbytery Life, or the chair's delegate, will review the resolution for legality and decorous language. If the stated clerk and the Committee on Presbytery Life chair/delegate approve the legality and decorousness of the language, the resolution will be placed before the body during the new-business phase of the meeting. The commissioner bringing the resolution shall make available prior to the opening of the meeting sufficient copies for the entire attendance at the presbytery meeting.

Appendix II Moderator's Duties (M-4.0301)

The moderator acts as the chair of the presbytery. The moderator's duties shall include all those enumerated in the Book of Order. The moderator also:

- a. Is normally expected to preside over administrative commissions to ordain or install pastors and to commission lay pastors
- b. Appoints investigative committees as spelled out in the Rules of Discipline and reports to the next meeting of the presbytery
- c. Calls special meetings of the presbytery upon request, following the standards in M-3.02 and M-3.03
- d. Serves as chair of the Nominating Committee
- e. Performs other tasks as requested by the presbytery

Appendix III Vice-Moderator's Duties (M-4.0401)

The vice-moderator:

- a. Presides at all presbytery meetings in the absence of the moderator, or at the moderator's request
- b. Assists the stated clerk as recording clerk when not presiding at meetings
- c. Serves as a member of the Nominating Committee
- d. Performs other tasks as requested by the presbytery

Appendix IV Trustees Duties (M-5.02)

In its capacity as the presbytery's trustees, the Committee on Presbytery Life shall:

- a. Own real property and any legal parts of real property, such as mineral rights or surface rights alone, and hold or own various types of personal property for the purposes and uses that are specified by the presbytery and by the intention of the donors as expressed in the written documents which created the specific trusts. The trustees shall also have the specific power to convey items of property without restrictions when the governing instrument so provides and when the trustees are directed to do so by the presbytery.
- b. Consult with and make recommendation to the presbytery concerning physical properties within the presbytery
- c. Review and evaluate particular actions involving rental, lease, mortgage, or sale of real property or any financial borrowing, and report and make recommendations directly to the presbytery
- d. Review and evaluate capital projects of congregations whose cost exceeds fifteen percent of their annual operating budget
- e. Administer the Revolving Loan Fund. Money which the presbytery has designated for low-interest loans to churches for capital needs will constitute the Revolving Loan Fund. Upon the application of a particular church for a loan, the trustees, after review, may recommend to the presbytery that it grant a loan to that church of up to one-half of the principal then in the Revolving Loan Fund.
 1. In addition to any conditions set by the trustees, the church shall agree to complete and abide by the conditions in the standard loan contract, which shall be kept on file in the presbytery office.
 2. The interest on new loans from the Revolving Loan Fund shall be set annually on the day of the November presbytery meeting according to a formula adopted by the trustees and reported to the presbytery.
