To Huntingdon Presbyterian Church

After reading directions, all drivers please see ** below. Thank you.

General – from your point of origin, please use your own best routes to reach US Route 22 east or west, or PA Route 26 south or north. Upon approaching Huntingdon, use the more specific directions below. Our church office number is (814) 643-1302 if you need further assistance en route.

From North – Continue on PA Route 26 south to Huntingdon. Entering the boro, you will pass (all on your left) the Detwiler Field athletic complex, a church, some houses, the Armory and the War-Vets football field complex. Just past War-Vets the road will curve to the right and go up a small, short hill. Turn left at the top of hill (route 26 is now called 2nd Street); then turn onto the first street to your right, Mifflin Street (one way west). Continue three blocks to 5th Street. Our brick church with the clock tower is on the corner of 5th and Mifflin Streets. Turn left onto 5th Street; the church parking lot is on your right.

From East – Continue on US 22 west crossing the Juniata River, through the traffic light at Raystown Plaza (Giant, Rite Aid, etc) on your right. At the second traffic light, turn right onto S. 4th Street. There is a large Sheetz on your right at the light. Continue on S. 4th Street. You will cross a bridge and the Norfolk Southern tracks. Continue and cross Allegheny Street, Penn Street (light) and Washington Street (Stop sign) to Mifflin Street (Stop sign). Turn left onto Mifflin Street (one way west) and drive one block to the church at 5th and Mifflin Streets. Turn left onto 5th Street; the church parking lot is on your right.

From South – Continue on PA 26 north to the cloverleaf intersection with US 22, just past the Wal-Mart entrance. Bear right onto the US 22 east ramp. Once on US 22 east, pass through 2 traffic lights (the Rte. 22 Shopping Plaza will be on your left - Peebles, Autozone, etc). Just past OIP and in front of the Days Inn, also on your left, get into left turn lane. At this third traffic signal (there will be a large Sheetz right in front of you), turn left onto S. 4th Street. Continue as above.

From West – Continue on US 22 East. When you reach the intersection with PA 26 (past Wal-Mart), stay straight on 22 East. Pass through 2 traffic lights (the Rte. 22 Shopping Plaza on your left - Peebles, Autozone, etc. Just past OIP and in front of the Days Inn (also on your left) get into left turn lane. At this third traffic signal (there will be a large Sheetz right in front of you), turn left onto S. 4th Street. Continue as above.

Parking is available as noted:

- a) At the Huntingdon Presbyterian Church – enter the church parking lot from 5th Street;

CONSENT AGENDA

What is a consent agenda?

A consent agenda is made up of items that may be considered routine business that need action, but are unlikely to require debate. Items for inclusion on the consent agenda must be sent out in advance with the pre-presbytery mailing and clearly marked for the consent agenda.

Why is a consent agenda useful?

When the consent agenda is called for, the moderator will call for a motion to approve the entire consent agenda in one vote, thus saving presbytery time for items requiring more discussion.

BUT What if I wish to debate, discuss, ask for clarification on some part of the consent agenda?

Simply, rise to be recognized and request that that item be removed from the consent agenda. One person's request is all that is required. No second is required, no vote need be taken to remove the item.

Do not give the explanation of your concern, need for clarification, points to be emphasized or opposed at this time. The item will come up for consideration at the time when the remainder of that committee's report is made, and you will be afforded the opportunity to speak to the motion at that time.

ALICE McFEELY MELOY A MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

Alice was a joy with whom to work, steel wrapped in soft cotton. She was born August 20, 1928 and graduated in music education from Penn State. Although music was ever a passion, her call was to ministry, even though no one, except perhaps her college pastor Andrew Newcomer, encouraged her. She defiantly entered Princeton Seminary anyway, earning the grudging accolade from her all male classmates of “thinking like a man.” She graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary with her husband Richard Meloy in 1954. She had an M. Div. (then a B.D.) and nowhere to use it. Even when the denomination opened ordination to women, no congregation was willing to extend a call. So Alice devoted her creativity to supply preaching, writing C.E. curriculum and inspiring her three children to explore the world around them. Finally, on November 29, 1977, West Jersey Presbytery ordained Alice to the ministry of Word and Sacrament, and three years later, East Kish extended a call. She was received into membership in this presbytery on October 21, 1980 and installed as pastor on November 16.

In 1960 she wrote, “Within the Church many members are unaware that there is a cost to discipleship. They are bargain hunting for easy solutions to personal problems. The Christian message should point out the real values in life, the fact that one’s main business in living is to develop in Christian maturity, in love, in peace, in joy, in service, in faith, etc.” The Presbytery of Huntingdon only regrets it waited until 1980 to receive her and didn’t ordain her in the 1950’s.

Alice proved an incredible asset to this presbytery, creative, dedicated, always Reformed and always Reforming. She chaired the Committee on Preparation, organized lay preacher training and curriculum, provided a steady mainstay of Committee on Ministry. Her worship leadership was outstanding. When she retired on July 31, 1994, she moved with Dick to the McFeeley farm in Path Valley. There Alice began her decades-long projects of writing histories of East Kish and of Path Valley. She wrote pageants for presbytery history celebrations. From Path Valley, she provided pulpit supply to any and all of the congregations of Bethany Parish when they were between pastors. She ensured that music, worship, justice and mission continued even in the smallest of our congregations. Her children followed her example—Merry Hope entering the ministry of Word and Sacrament; Michael carrying on her passion for the environment in his work of environmental law and for history in his service to the Presbyterian Historical Society; while Meg chaired the Worship Committee at the State College Presbyterian Church.

In retirement, she published several of the historical researches she had joyfully researched in her spare time—a history of the East Kish Presbyterian Church, two volumes on the history of Path Valley, and young adult novels, As the Crow Flies, on the impact of the battle of Gettysburg on the people of south central Pennsylvania, and An Unexpected Friendship, on the European push to settle central Pennsylvania on the lives of the indigenous peoples. She recruited elder Dan Mertz to re-enact candidate Philip Fithian’s missionary journey on horseback through Big Valley at a presbytery meeting. She was as meticulous in history as in theology.

Eventually, infirmity restricted her travel. Although she continued to moderate sessions in lower Huntingdon County and inspire them to mission and excellence, the sessions made it possible by holding their meetings in her living room. Thus, the pandemic of 2020 with all its trials and tribulations produced a small silver lining. The virus forced the presbytery to meet by ZOOM, which offered Alice the opportunity to be active in its councils again. She regularly joined the ZOOMs, but her body no longer recovered. After more hospitalization, she made it clear, it was time for her to go and join Dick. She died August 15, 2021, at home.
